

Tomika McFadden

YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT PASTOR

Rev. Tomika C. McFadden serves as the Youth and Young Adult Pastor. She is an ordained minister in the African Methodist Episcopal Church (AMEC) tradition. Rev. Tomika graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Bowie State University. It was on the campus of Bowie State where she accepted God's call to preach.

Currently, Rev. Tomika is pursuing her Master's of Divinity degree from Wesley Theological Seminary with a certificate in African American Church Studies with an emphasis in Spiritual Care.

Rev. Tomika has a heart for civic and religious service and works with numerous community organizations whose initiatives focus on correcting social disparities impacting marginalized communities and advocating for mental health. Overall, Rev. McFadden lives to educate, empower, and equip youth, young adults, and urban communities to identify their role in the world and become successful in their purpose.

She strives to be an example of love and faithfulness to God, to the communities, and to the people, she encounters along her journey through life. Rev. McFadden is a child of the Most High God who desires more than anything else to please God first! She wants to continually be a faithful witness to others and a woman of God who not only talks about God but has a lifestyle of holiness to enforce what she speaks.
